Dear Journalist,

While approaching cabinet on the issue of damages HWC has caused to people disabled by environmental hypersensitivity, several cabinet ministers' staff have advised me that I should get more media attention to the issue before I can expect to have it dealt with by their bosses.

I find this offensive, both as a citizen approaching his ~~sup~~posedly responsible government, and as a journalist who tries, along with other journalists, to encourage parties to sort out their differences with each other, instead of through the press.

Would you have any comment or suggestion?

Sincerely,
